CHURCH OF ENGLAND SCHOOL
KIRKBY OVERBLOW

BULLETIN - 22nd November 2024

Dear Parents and Carers

On Tuesday, Year 5 and 6 attended Annie - The Musical, at St Aidans. This was a special performance for primary schools and our Fellowship school, North Rigton, joined us. It was a super afternoon which was enjoyed by all. The quality of the student performers at St Aidans was, as usual, outstanding. Our children were thoroughly entertained and very well behaved, thank you to the adults in school and at St Aidans who enabled this to happen.

There are only a few more days to cast your vote in our Parent Governor election. Thank you to those parents who have put themselves forward for this very rewarding role.

Congratulations to Mars Class on their wedding! Miss Brown, Mrs Thompson and Mrs Grainger planned a superb learning experience for the Reception children on Wednesday at church. Thank you to Revd Stroma for officiating and to parents who provided clothing, food, cakes and presents. By all accounts this was a very memorable experience!

Have a lovely weekend,

Mrs Andrews and Mrs Honey

ALL SAINTS CHURCH
Wednesday 11th December 3:45pm

Grinch Tickets are available on Parent Pay— £10 per child to include a party tea and present. (no charge for adults attending).

Donations are needed for your class raffle hamper. There will be boxes in the parent shelter for you to leave your donation in. We would also like donations of children's gifts for the tombola.

If you can help in any way before, during or after the event, please sign up on the whiteboard, which will be on the driveway from next week.

Christmas Cards! Is it that time again?!

(I hope you sang that to the tune of Christmas Time! Just let the bells ring!)

The Christmas Post will be reopening on Monday 2nd December. Children are invited to write and send cards to other people in the school to spread the festive spirit. Best part, no stamps needed! Post will be delivered on a Thursday, with the first delivery on Thursday 5th December. Please write first name and class on the envelope. Please note, class teachers are not allowed to send home any class lists.
